

SURVEY -- October 8, 2010

1. If a child of an illegal immigrant is brought into the United States illegally and later serves honorably in the United States military, should that child be given a chance to obtain citizenship in the United States?
YES 75.0%
NO 17.9%
UNDECIDED 7.1%
COMMENTS:
 1. Do not believe a "child" should serve in the US Armed Forces.
 2. Honorable service should assure citizenship
 3. only after the border is closed and shown to be closed for 2 to 5 years
 4. on the same basis as any other person illegally in the united states, and with same priority as other non-U.S. Nationals in the U.S. armed forces.
 5. If that person served honorably they should be given the opportunity for citizenship

2. Should "don't ask don't tell" policy changes only be considered after the Secretary of Defense and the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff complete their review of armed forces personnel and certify that repeal won't hurt military readiness and not before the review is completed as suggested by Congress?
YES 78.6%
NO 14.3%
UNDECIDED 7.1%
COMMENTS:
 1. Stop this social tinkering with the US Armed Forces
 2. this is a behavior issue not a sexual orientation issue
 3. The military is under pressure to accept the unacceptable.
 4. Congress should only act after the review is completed

3. Do you favor repeal of the "don't ask, don't tell" policy that bans openly gay individuals from military service by the US Congress?
YES 15.4%
NO 73.1%
UNDECIDED 11.5%
COMMENTS:
 1. there is no better suggestion on the table at this time
 2. Only if it is determined (by Joint Chiefs) that such a policy will not have a negative effect on the ability of the military to complete its function.

- 3. The policy seems to work now. There will be a time when it can be repealed, but I do not feel it is now. Fri
- 4. Its onr thing to work with a gay person and be able to go home to your place and associate with who you want Its another to have to work and live with someone gay
- 5. a persons service should only be judged on there behavior not sexual orientation
- 6. If the review shows that there would not adversely hurt military readiness and morale
